MEDICINAL.

Keep your blood clean as you keep your body clean. You don't wait until your body is foul before you cleanse it.

It is a matter of surprise that many people who are so careful to have clean bodies make no effort to keep the blood clean. Everyone knows that unclean blood breeds disease; that those who do not keep their bodies in a wholesome condition and who dwell in filthy surroundings are the first to fall when some epidemic of disease sweeps the country. But foul blood is more dangerous to the individual than a foul body. An unclean body is rather a passive than an active hindrance to health. But unclean blood is an active threat against the body—it makes the body a prepared breeding place for disease.

It is part of Nature's plan for human safety that in many cases where the blood is impure or corrupt she sets a sign on the body in proof of the corrupt current that is flowing through the veins. Scrofula with its disfiguring sores and scars, eczema with its irritation, salt rheum, tetty, erysipelas, boils, pimples and other eruptions are only the outward signs of the impurity of the blood. But often in the earlier or simpler stages of the blood's impurity there are no outward signs of this condition; only dull, languid, sluggish feelings, which are very commonly attributed solely to the sluggishness of the liver.

Of all preparations for purifying the blood Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery easily takes the first place. It eliminates from the blood the elements which clog and corrupt it, and which breed and feed disease. It acts directly on the blood-making glands, increasing their activity, and so increasing the supply of rich, pure blood which is the life of the body.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only.

A Spanish Trick.

A pretty senorita, 19 years old, and $375,000 constitute the prize offered James M. Borland, chairman of the McKeesport, Pa., republican committee and a leading merchant of that town. As a preliminary he must send $2,000 to Spain. Mr. Borland has not swallowed the bait, but has notified the police, who in turn have notified the authorities in Spain of what is supposed to be a swindle.

Some weeks ago Mr. Borland received a letter from a man who signed himself Emilio Laparto, a prisoner for life in the castle fort of Barracas, Spain. The writer unfolded a romance that appealed not only to American patriotism, but to the heart strings as well. He offered for $2,000, sent at once, to deliver legal papers concerning the adoption of his daughter and delivering a deposit slip on the bank of England for $375,000, payable to the bearer.

In a spirit of amusement Borland answered the letter. Additional details furnished were that Laparto's wife, on her deathbed, had expressed a wish that their child should be sent to Mr. Borland in America for adoption. Her name was Kate Borland, a relative of the Borland family in Allegheny county. Laparto said was an officer in the Spanish navy and served under Admiral Cervera in the battle of Santiago. Before the Spanish-American war. Before the battle of Santiago he robbed the strong boxes of $375,000 and escaped to England. Fearing to deposit the money in his own name, he secured a deposit slip from the Bank of England, payable to the bearer.

Longing to see his daughter, Laparto went to Valencia. The child was in charge of Rev. Father Barto. While visiting his child he was arrested and sentenced to imprisonment for life. He managed to confide his secret to the priest, who has the deposit slip.

Mr. Borland received a letter a few days ago, alleged to come from Father Barto. In it was a photograph of the pretty senorita. The writer informed Mr. Borland that Laparto would probably be dead before the letter reached America and requested that the $2,000 be sent to him at once, as he had been delegated to carry out the wishes of the dying man. As soon as the money was received the priest promised to come to America with the girl and the deposit slip.

Mr. Borland answered the letter from Father Barto and expects soon to receive another announcing the death of the prisoner. Meantime he wrote to the Spanish authorities at Valencia, notifying them of the facts in the case.

A Curious Remedy.

Colorado news unknown in the State outside of one home has come back from Indiana, where it was first revealed in a letter written to Indianapolis. In a word, a consumptive girl, whose name is given as Charlotte Dunnington and residence as Waterford, Ind., has been, since the beginning of last June, and continuing until recently, when cold weather set in, sleeping nude in the woods on the ranch of her uncle near Grana, Col., covered only with earth! The story as it has come from Indiana is as follows:

The physician advised that she go to Colorado, where she had an uncle living, and take the new cure for consumption—the "nature cure"—the idea of which is to get right down to old Mother Earth and let the everlasting hills absorb into their strength all of the tuberculosis germs that infect the human system. Miss Dunnington acted on the advice and, accompanied by her faithful St. Bernard dog Nero, went to Grana, a within a few miles of which her uncle lives. She began at once sleeping in a small grove near her uncle's house without a vestige of clothes, like a modern Diana, covered only with loose soil, which she gently raked over her body as she retired each night to sleep under her blanket of soft warm earth.

During all the summer months just past the girl has slept thus, while her faithful dog constantly watched beside her sleeping form of his mistress. Nero and the stars twinkling in the clear heavens thus kept vigil during the long hours of the night. Each morning as Miss Dunnington awoke she has taken regularly her early morning roll in a dewy clover bank in what she calls the bath of the gods. After she had taken her roll in the morning dew she would then run through the woods to a secluded lake nearby. Then she would take her early morning plunge into the cold clear water. Her swim over, she would emerge into the early morning sunshine again, which would serve for all the drying purposes of a towel. Then, draped in a thin, white cloth tunic, like a girl of old Greece, Miss Dunnington would spend the day with her dog out in the air among the Colorado hills, just growing young and taking unto herself all the eternally youth which complete outdoor life alone can bring. This tunic has been the only clothing she has allowed herself to wear during the entire summer. Miss Dunnington says she has improved perceptibly under this strange treatment.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my 'teens' again," writes D. H. Turner, of Dempsie, Pa. They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowels. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only 35c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

Stole Rothschild's Money.

For the first time in its history the London house of the Rothschilds has suffered by an embezzlement. Moses Blumenthal, the trusted head of the Rothschilds' bullion department, who had carte blanche to use the firm's name, has been found short in his accounts, having speculated in consols. The firm's loss is placed at two hundred and fifty thousand pounds. The total losses will probably amount to a million pounds, sterling, the firm assuming only two hundred and fifty thousand pounds. Blumenthal had charge of the firm's smelteries and adulterated the gold in order to balance his books. When detected, he fled. It is the policy of the firm not to prosecute for breaches of faith. Blumenthal knowing he was safe, fled to New York. The Rothschilds, disgusted at the discovery of the first embezzler in the history of the house, closed the smelteries abruptly and retired from the bullion business. In order to protect the name of the house, they paid Blumenthal's brokerage accounts, although they were not legally responsible. It is the first scandal to smirch the name of the Rothschilds. The London papers suppressed the news. Baron Rothschild is melancholy because he found Blumenthal as a poor clerk and promoted him and introduced him socially.

Only Makes a Bad Matter Worse.

Perhaps you have never thought of it but the fact must be apparent to every one that constipation is caused by a lack of water in the system, and the use of drastic cathartics like the old fashioned pills only makes a bad matter worse. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are much more mild and gentle in their effects, and when the proper dose is taken their action is so natural that one can hardly realize it is the effect of a medicine. Try a 25 cent bottle of these. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

A Good Complexion.

"Sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks restored by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers," so writes S. P. Moore, of Nacogdoches, Tex. A cer sin cure for biliousness, constipation, etc. Small pill—easy to take—easy to act. Sold by all druggists.

Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Liquid Cream Balm is becoming quite as popular in many localities as Ely's Cream Balm. It is prepared for use in stonizers, and is highly prized by those who have been accustomed to call upon physicians for such a treatment. Many physicians are using and prescribing it. All the medicinal properties of the celebrated Cream Balm are contained in the Liquid form, which is 75 cts. including a spraying tube. All druggists, or by mail, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.
